

FRIENDS OF THE ROSSLAND RANGE present

FILM

"Professional Hermits Operate Canada's Highest Weather Station"

a 1954 National Film board of Canada short film about the men who lived on top of Old Glory Peak

NEW!!

These
films
are now
available
for library
patrons
to borrow

"The Builders of Red Mountain"

a 1980 film by Richie Mann featuring the men who built Red Mountain

"Percy Saltzman Weather Report & Interview of Meteorologist Otto Schwentke"

NEW!!

a mid-1950's interview of this meteorologist who lived on the top of Old Glory in 1947, 1948

PHOTOGRAPHY

"Celebrate the Legacy"

a community photography exhibit of old and new photography of recreation in the Rossland Range, over 325 photographs contributed by about 30 photographers

Three panels of NEW photographs are displayed at the Rossland Public Library through March, 2009 NEW!!

More of the exhibit may be seen at the Rossland Historical Museum through March, 2009:
Wednesdays and Sundays, 12-4pm

Thank you to the following for making these exhibits possible:

Columbia Basin Trust
Columbia Kootenay Cultural Alliance
Rossland Council for the Arts and Culture
Post Impressions Art & Framing
the photographers and their families
Rossland community donations
Rossland Historical Museum
Rossland Public Library

To unsubscribe to FORR emails or change your e-mail address, reply to this email.

Pass this information to others who may have interest!

Everyone is welcome to attend events, meetings, hikes, member or not. See more info: www.rosslandrange.org

For membership renewal and support of FORR programs, please send $5/individual to:

PO Box 701, Rossland, BC V0G 1Y0